

Shepherd Harris & Co

We practise in the following areas of work:-

- Crime
- Matrimonial
- Child Care
- Civil Litigation
- Personal Injury
- Clinical Negligence
- Employment Tribunals
- Licensing
- Conveyancing
- Company & Partnership matters
- Wills and probate and other non-contentious matters
- Commercial - General
- Prison Law

European Links

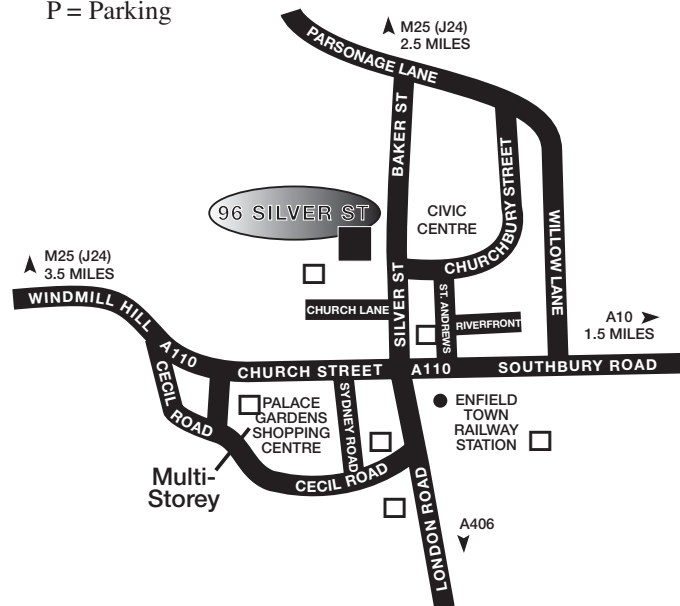

To supplement the comprehensive legal service we provide in matters involving English law, the firm is a member of the Hattinga Verschure Shepherd Harris EEIG, a European Economic Interest Grouping enabling the firm to work in close co-operation with colleagues in Europe and providing clients with the same level of personal service and quality.

How to find us

By Car: Enfield town is in easy reach of the M25 (Junctions 24 & 25), the A10 from Cambridge and Central London, and the North-South London route. There are two main car parks situated in Sydney Road, which is a 2 minute walk from the centre of the Town to our Offices. There are three ancillary car parks, the entrances of which can be found in St. Andrews Road, Genotin Road and Church Lane. There is also a Multi-Storey car park giving access to the Town shopping centre. Immediately outside our offices there are Pay & Display parking spaces between the hours of 8am and 6.30pm. There are further limited free parking spaces by the Police Station, situated almost directly opposite our offices and adjacent to the Civic Centre.

BY TRAIN: Use British Rail Enfield town station connecting with Liverpool Street and London Transport's Seven Sisters Road Station (Victoria Line).

P = Parking

Shepherd Harris & Co

*Efficiency,
professionalism and consideration*

TEL : 020 8363 8341
Office Hours : 9.00-5.00
(Mon-Fri)
24 Hour Service for Criminal Clients
FAX : 020 8367 7440
Email: mail@shepherd-harris.co.uk
www.law4u.co.uk

Nickel House, 96 Silver Street
Enfield Middlesex EN1 3EL

THE TEAM

The partners are assisted by 2 consultants, 7 Assistant Solicitors, 3 legal executives and 3 clerks who are well trained and supervised. The partners remain continually involved to ensure that clients are confident that their case is being handled professionally and expeditiously at all times. Our emphasis is on professionalism and client care at all times.

- ◆ The Criminal Department is headed by Ian Godfrey who is a High Court Criminal Advocate and former member of the Legal Aid Board National Duty Solicitor Committee and representative for local solicitors on Court User Groups at local Magistrates Courts and other associated committees. He is backed up by an experienced team with our Senior Legal Executive Mark Davies, Consultant and Local M.P. David Burrowes, assistant Solicitors Natalia Zimareva-Locke and Hugh Ogilvie and criminal advocate Gennaro Baffa.
- ◆ The Family Department is headed by assistant solicitor Georgina Hetherington who specialises in Child Care and matrimonial matters and is a member of the Children, Advanced Family Law and Resolution Specialist Panels, as well as an experienced advocate. Ian Godfrey is also a member of the Children and Family Law Panels and specialises in matrimonial cases together with assistant solicitor Tazeen Khaliq, who is on the Resolution and Family Law Advanced Panels, and specialises in child abduction cases. Harjinder Mann (resolution panel) is a trained mediator and Sarah Canfield F.Inst.L.Ex specialises in child contact & injunction matters.

- ◆ Employment Tribunal cases including sex and racial discrimination cases are dealt with by Ian Godfrey and Georgina Hetherington.
- ◆ Tazeen Khaliq heads our busy Litigation Department together with Ian Godfrey and Digum Jeetun.
- ◆ Our Personal Injury Department is headed by Gennaro Baffa who is on the Law Society PI panel and Headway and whose particular expertise is in clinical negligence cases, Ian Godfrey and Tazeen Khaliq are the other solicitors in this department.
- ◆ Our Non-contentious Department is headed by Duncan Ritchie who specialises in dealing with all areas of conveyancing (commercial and residential), company and partnership matters and other work including wills and probate. He is assisted by assistant solicitors Georgia Costa and Lynne Paddock.

ABOUT COSTS

The Partners aim to give early and regular information regarding costs whether it be in respect of public funding or private paying clients, so that from the beginning clients know how much advice and/or representation will cost. The partners are confident that they offer a both reasonable and competitive approach to costs.

CONCLUSION

The partners are confident that clients will find the firm to be friendly, with a fast efficient service. They and their staff are informal, unstuffy and believe that should clients choose SHEPHERD HARRIS & CO to represent them they will be pleased with the firm's meticulous attention to client care and also to their fair approach regarding costs.

THE FIRM is well-established in Enfield and has been operating for over 50 years.

IAN GODFREY and DUNCAN RITCHIE are the partners of the progressive firm. Former partner Alan Shepherd and local member of parliament David Burrowes are consultants. The firm was awarded a legal aid franchise in 1998, and holds contracts with the LSC and CLS.

The firm aims to offer a top quality specialist service and has the skills, experience and backing to deal with all areas of legal work.

efficiency,
professionalism
and speed of response

The firm values its reputation for efficiency, professionalism and speed of response to client's instructions. The expertise of the partners, together with full use of information technology and the backing of a loyal and efficient staff successfully combine to ensure that clients can overcome their legal worries.